The Philosophy

In the era of emerging technologies and economic and socioeconomic changes, the fundamentals of traditional practices and approaches towards People in context of an organization applicable since the beginning of the industrialization are being challenged. This issue has impacted many organizations globally and has undermined the stability of their ©Organizational Architecture, Landscape and Matrix attributes and ©People-Process-Information Organizational DNA. Additionally, the symptoms of this phenomenon have revealed themselves in the global challenges with Talent Attraction, Engagement and Retention.

Now, if one further evaluates the building elements of an ©Organizational Architecture, Landscape and Matrix, it becomes evident that the stability of the entire structure is dependent on the ©Organizational DNA; i.e. ©People-Process-Information. Additionally, since the "People" aspect of the ©Organizational DNA is the dynamic element, its microstructure is directly impacting the health of the overall system.

As a pragmatic response to escalating organizational challenges globally, based on the book titled The HIM & HER, human being's undiscovered mystery, Intelligence and Emotion are introduced as the building blocks of every human being. Accordingly, the ©Human Intelligence Management (HIM) and ©Human Emotion Realization (HER) were pioneered as two unsurpassed methodologies, which allow us to understand Intelligence and Emotion, their internal interactions in every human being and their outward effects towards and with others specially in groups and organizations..

The ©HIM & HER go beyond the static, traditional and historical approaches towards People in the context of an organization. Surpassing the prescribed approaches since the beginning of the industrialization, the ©HIM & HER employ unparalleled and dynamic views in discovering the mystery of the human being with respect to ©Organizational Architecture, Landscape and Matrix attributes and ©People-Process-Information Organizational DNA. In essence, when it comes to an organization, the ©HIM & HER prescribe a fundamental change of view towards People aspect.

Based on the principles of the ©HIM & HER and to assist organizations in achieving and surpassing Organizational Excellence and as the result of extensive research, study and practical experience, as the only 360 degrees global solution, the modern, and unparalleled ©emerge, a journey beyond ordinary, program has been developed.

Hope to see you onboard of ©emerge, a journey beyond ordinary.
